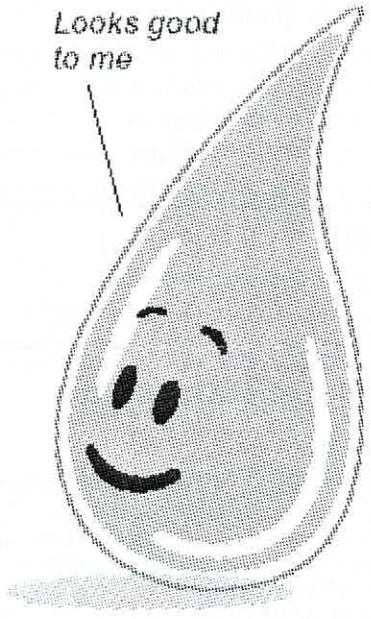
Save £300[1] when you buy a new boiler

Our best boilers now cost £300[1] less in our sale

We want to do our best to save you money. That's why a boiler that costs up to 40%[2] less to run, now costs less to buy. Buy a new boiler from British Gas and you'll save £300[1]. You'll even get a year's free HomeCare 200 worth £192[3]. How's that for a great offer?



1 Saving is based on prices applicable for at least 28 days in the last six months. Installation by British Gas is a requirement of purchase.

2 Savings are based on replacing a 15-year old boiler with a new condensing boiler and the right (intelligent) heating controls in a dwelling with average levels of insulation. Source: Energy Saving Trust, September 2006
